

You need to learn more.....

Seminar Overview and Aims

Mayday Domestic Violence Services' innovative seminar for

- Children's Social Care Staff (social workers, managers, independent review officers and all practitioners)
- Health professionals (GPs, midwives, health visitors, health professionals)
- Education (teachers, family workers and safeguarding leads)
- Justice System (Police Officers, Judges, Children's Guardian, CafCass Officers)
- Housing – managers and staff working directly with families

This is no ordinary seminar! We have used the experiences from parents affected by Coercive Control and Narcissistic Abuse and professionals working with victims and perpetrators to develop our programmes. We aim to give you a unique perspective and approach to understanding and tackling the underlying reasons why parents use coercively controlling behaviours and how Narcissistic parents harm their children.

We have proof that what we do delivers results, visit www.maydaydvs.co.uk

In our seminar, you will:

- Learn about the insidious nature of Coercive Control and Narcissistic Abuse and their critical role in dealing effectively with domestic violence.
- Learn ways to work with families to finally break the cycle of domestic violence and to prevent re-referrals to Children's services.
- Learn about the underlying reasons why parents fail to safeguard their children and why people in abusive relationships fail to break free.

- Broaden your understanding of the psychology behind the abuse in order to safeguard children.
- Learn about the complex nature of the Child-Narcissistic-Parent relationship.
- Develop your knowledge and understanding of the impact of living in a Narcissistic household and how Coercively Controlling behaviours leave lifelong effects on children.
- Learn methods to identify child victims and what needs to be in place to help them and their families before they reach crisis point.
- Acquire insight into the issue that will help to provide effective support for children affected by domestic violence.

Learning Objectives

The learning objectives are linked to the aims outlined above however there will be themes explored within the seminar that will provide that “light bulb” moment and help you to see things differently.

You will come away from our seminar with a good understanding of tackling the underlying cause of the problem and not the symptom.

- Dates: 6 December 2019
- Time: Registration at 9:30 am Finish 4:30 pm
- Cost: £99 plus VAT per person (including refreshments & lunch)
- Venue: TallyHo Conference & Banqueting Centre, Pershore Rd, Birmingham, B5 7RN

Facilitators

Alison Smith, a Narcissistic Abuse Recovery Expert, Nikky Morgan, a Life Coach and Counsellor and Elaine Nembhard a qualified Social Worker have combined their 40 years' experience working with children and families to raise awareness of Coercive Control, Narcissistic Abuse and the long-term harm this causes for children.

Need Further Information?

Email Elaine (info@maydaydvs.co.uk) if you have any questions regarding the seminar or to arrange to commission this as in-house training for your organisation. You can also telephone us on 0330 133 0238 www.Maydaydvs.co.uk

You can book online or complete, scan and email the form to us

Name *

Role (Job Title)

Company / Organisation Name/Address*

Delegate's Contact Details*

Email

Telephone Number(s)

Special Requirements *

Authorised by:

Job title.

We will invoice you on receipt of your booking form.
For our contact details please visit: www.maydaydvs.co.uk or email us at info@maydaydvs.co.uk